
Examining the foreigner girls

Hey, you the believers of the god! Do not get my enemies and your enemies as the friends and as the supervisors. You project friendship to them and just they rejected what came to you and seemed to you as suit, proper and right meaning. They artificially manipulate the messenger and you to exhibit (as real destiny) for that you believe in this deity as your bringer up. Pretending that you are going to raise up and searching for my satisfaction for your inner love for them. Moreover, I am sage about what you hide and do not reveal, and someone who does so truly has lost the correct way .

If they take over you in dominancy of signs and concepts, they will be for you the enemies and they will encroach you with the immoralities base on their gracious (from Satan-Antichrist sent sense) and their special formed image. And they love that you return from your way and you reject and hide (your correct god way).

There is no advantage for you about your passions and your issued fruit that is produced. The days of collocate stabilization will make the distance between you. And the god is clear-sighted about what you do.

Truly, the messenger that his manner is like the sting of a needle to eager (eager to Satan's destination) and those accompanying him are a good model for you. When they said to their people:

we are averse and far of your manners and what is your obedience of other gods. We rejected your behaviors and appeared the eternal enmity and grudge between you and us unless you believe and trust only the god with unity. Only and only, declaim of the messenger whose manner is the sting of a needle on eager to his bringer up: he said definitely I will scratch the stain for you and I have not any possession for you from the god as compel necessitation. Our god! We have faith in you as a sure director, we returned inside of you, and a good end of the destination is in your obedience.

Our god! Do not place us (as a sign) for unbelievers mutiny and please scratch for us and array for us nice, truly you are the forceful, the wise.

Truly, they are good models for those who have the expectation and hope of god and another whole truth (out of the Antichrist-Satan- magic destination). And someone who shirks, then the god is needless and the praised one.

With the prospect that the god brings about the friendship between you and those with who you spoiled your relationship and got away from them. And the god is puissant to prepare and the god is scratching the disorders with mercifulness.

The god not only does not proscribe you about friendship relation with those who did not fight with you based on the rule of destination award and they did not extrude you from your natural steerage of willing, But also be straight out with them and deal fairly with them, the god loves the fairly behavior people.

Indeed god proscribes you from friendship with those who based on the rule of the award did fight with you and extrude you from your natural steerage of your willing and supported your extrude and someone who gets them as friends, they will be the cruel people

Hey, god believers! At the time the girls that will provide the security and were far away from you come to you, you have to test them; the god is wiser to their security bringing. If you distinguished that they are bringers of security, then you do not turn back them to god deniers (god deniers' destiny). They are not the case of administration cancellation (cancellation of being as target intention) for god deniers and they do not get out of their convention about them. By what you promote, you have to provide amendments for them. In addition, not matter to you that you provide cooperation with them about benefits matter when you provide them with their reward (like relief, good feeling) and you do not handle with real sex abstention of girls that are god deniers. Moreover, you ask what you are promoting, and sure, they will ask what they are promoting. This is the god advice for you that advice between you and god is wise, the adviser.

Moreover, if you lost a controlling to necessity about your painting cover toward the god deniers, then you sure will have a bad alternative resemblance, then you prepare likelihood promotion for those whose painting cover is disappeared. And you have to be aware of this deity that you are (by your mediation) making safety from him.

Hey, you the messenger! When the bringing safety girls came to you for dealing with you, you only deal with them based on some conditions that they do not share another deity with the god by making compel necessity in the destination. Moreover, they do not steal, and they do not make Adultery, their issued fruit does not fight (with the god verb), and they do not bring the calumny that artificially makes their grace (donated by Satan) and outshine, and they do not transgress from you in well-known right way. Then you deal with them and array well for them. Truly, the god is the scratcher of the disorders, the merciful .

Hey, you the god believers! Do not get the people who are under the wrath of god as friends. Truly, they are disappointed about another whole truth, as same as that group of the god deniers, which were gangs of tombs (or gangs of hunting), are disappointed.
